● ABOUT ME

I am a highly skilled and experienced front-end developer with over 5 years of expertise in web development. My proficiency includes HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, Material UI, React.js, Tailwind CSS, and Bulma CSS. I specialize in creating pixel-perfect, mobile-responsive user interfaces and have a keen eye for turning Adobe XD designs into flawless HTML layouts.

My commitment to delivering high-quality work and staying updated with the latest web development trends has allowed me to successfully contribute to numerous projects, ensuring a seamless user experience and optimal performance.
